Where Am I Now? Where are you now with regard to Homework? Describe your reality.	Where Am I Going? What would you like your reality to be?	How Do I Close The Gap? How will you close the gap between your current reality and your ideal? <ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ What specific action will you take?➤ Is there a strategy, resource or tool you can implement to make a positive change?➤ How will you know it is effective?	Impact On My Teaching/ Students/Families What impact will a change in practice have upon your student, families, and teaching?

Questions for Learning Teams

- What side of the homework debate do you fall on? Explain your position.
- With group work, how do you control the accuracy of the assessment for each student? Are there some current routines that you might consider changing? Do you create supplemental assessments?
- What is your biggest takeaway from this session? What immediate action will you take because of this takeaway? Explain this to your team.
- What is the biggest concern you expect your students to express when you repurpose homework? What about parents?
- How confident are you that the inferences you make about student proficiency are on point? What aspect of performance assessment is the most challenging for you?
